

Cove Strip:

The product is made up of plastic products of the finest types of basic products and free of formaldehyde and asbestos and also does not help combustion, so it is free of plastics and remanufactured materials and made of raw materials, so it is not affected by the air changes of its temperature, so it does not contract or expand and is characterized by constant dimensions.

It's not affected by the flap and it doesn't lend itself to its properties.

don't stick to it, you know, because it's completely unnamed.

Low cost.

It's easy installation.

It's a quarter of a circle used behind the vinyl in the Ministry's premises.

It's glued to the walls by a special adhesive made of bindings, preferably on the basis of your acylation.

A test was done at the Egypt Research Centre.

Physical properties of materials in terms of mechanical performance, high flexibility

Not absorbed according to international standards

Constant dimensions with different degrees of heat

Ideal for use in multiple areas such as It's always used for the work of the ministry connected to the wall. Available in black:

